

Premiere Professional Development: Apply NOW!

Get Inspired at the DLE Gen Now Retreat

Young professionals eager to step up as a leader at work and in the community can gain the confidence, capabilities and connections to succeed at the 2019 Dulye Leadership Experience (DLE) Gen Now Retreat, scheduled for Nov. 1-3 in the Berkshires.

Powered by the theme of Be Inspired! Create Success for You and Your Organization, this dynamic learning immersion unites a select group of 45 motivated young professionals with corporate executives, emerging entrepreneurs and respected thought leaders from diverse industries and geographies.

The retreat's comprehensive curriculum satisfies a range of developmental needs from high-potential individual contributors to first-time managers to managers in need of a refresh. Sessions are crisply organized for lively interchange about pressing workplace challenges and most-desired skills for career and personal success.

2019 Gen Now Retreat topics boost confidence and ability to:

Success for Yourself

- communicate with others, device-free
- overcome impostor syndrome
- manage inner bias
- expand professional networks
- put stress in check
- seed a team of personal coaches
- find passion outside of your career
- design a meaningful career path

Success for Your Organization

- motivate others to speak up and take action
- create an inclusive team environment
- project your own voice with confidence
- ask great questions for listening and learning
- give and receive constructive feedback
- make decisions that deliver high-impact results
- hold others accountable—and yourself too!
- accept change as a workplace constant

A retreat bonus is the diversity, accessibility and receptivity of headline speakers, representing admired C-suites, start-ups and hard-driving organizations nationwide. All generously give their time throughout the weekend to actively participate in group exercises, networking breaks and one-on-one conversations.

This transformative weekend will ignite the drive and determination to add greater value at work, in the community and with personal connections.

High-quality interaction is ensured by limiting attendance to 45. You gain meaningful relationships and new friendships, plus a 2020 Leadership Action Plan for applying new tools and learnings with your direct manager and colleagues back on the job.
